Dedication

*To the memory of ADDIE GRACE WARDLE, PH. D.,
who died on February twenty-fifth,
Nineteen Hundred Twenty-Seven,
while in the service of Simpson College, and who, by her sterling qualities and her spirit of kindness and sympathy had won her way into the hearts of the students of Simpson, the Class of Nineteen Hundred Twenty-Eight respectfully dedicates this book*

FORENSICS

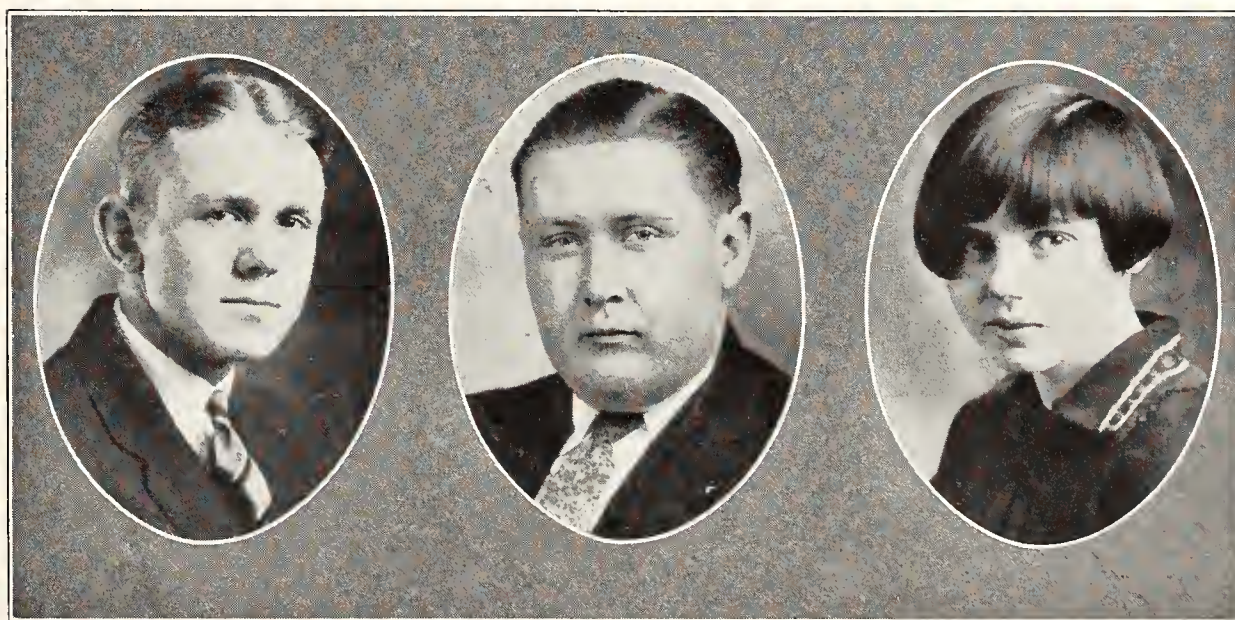

For the past two seasons the forensic department at Simpson has been highly successful. In the realm of oratory many laurels have come to us. Last Spring Mr. Lyle Quinn won the State Peace Contest, after winning the home contest. This year Mr. Horton Talley has won the State Oratorical Contest, and has tied for first in the preliminary section of the Inter-State Contest which was held at Sioux Falls, South Dakota. He will represent Simpson in the finals of the Inter-State Contest in Chicago before this book reaches your hands.

During the regular debate season the Simpson teams lost only one contest in the men's division and only one in the women's section.

The Simpson representatives showed up very well in the Province Pi Kappa Delta Convention which was held at Mt. Pleasant in March. Those who represented us were: Horton Talley, debate; Raoul Calkins, debate; Kingman Eberhart, extemporaneous and debate; Lyle Quinn, oratory and debate; Eugenie Ellis, oratory; Edna Wood, extemporaneous. Simpson was the only school having two teams debating in the fourth round. Mr. Eberhart and Mr. Quinn were eliminated in that round, but Mr. Talley and Mr. Calkins stayed until the fifth. Our first team was eliminated by the finalists of the tournament and our second team by the champions, Central College of Missouri.

At the convention Mr. Quinn won second in the Oratorical Contest, Miss Ellis received third in the girls' division, and Mr. Eberhart received third in the Extemporaneous Contest. Both debate teams made a creditable showing and Simpson representatives placed in three out of four contest.

Around the experienced speakers: Miss Bement, Miss Burnison, Miss Dean, Mr. Eberhart, and Mr. Quinn, Simpson should be able to build another successful team for next year.

Orators—Talley, Quinn, Ellis.

THE SEASON

The opening of the football season found a new man at the head of Simpson athletics, Harry ("Hoge") Workman, brother of Noel Workman, former coach. "Hoge" as he is known to many students and townspeople, succeeded his brother Noel as director of athletics, who went to Ames as head football coach.

The new coach, an All-American quarterback and star athlete at Ohio State University, began his duties last fall at Simpson after having coached successful athletic teams at the University of Redlands, Redlands, Calif., the year previous. In addition to coaching, Coach Workman had had experience in professional football and baseball and city playground work, the latter being in Cleveland, Ohio.

Sport fans throughout the state watched with interest the development of another championship team, and it was only the loss of the first game that deprived Simpson of a right to its fourth championship title. Although lacking an array of new material, Coach Workman built around his seven lettermen a team which was runnerup in the conference championship race.

Central—The opening tilt of the season with Central was the most disastrous as far as the conference season was concerned, for the Pella team carried off a 13 to 7 victory. Two fumbles cost the game for Simpson, as Kersbergen, Central end, recovered both and crossed the goal line for two touchdowns. The Simpson boys tried valiantly to overcome the lead and for a time it looked as though they would be successful. Chumbley, Red and Gold tackle, recovered a fumble on the 65-yard line, and it was here that locals started their march down the field for the touchdown, Wilcox, Brewer, and Hogendorn doing most of the ball toting, the latter making the touchdown. McCoy kicked goal. Hogendorn, Fisher, and McCoy were the outstanding performers in the backfield, while Capt. Holladay reminded fans that he had not lost any of his defensive ability in the line.

Grinnell—Simpson renewed relations with Grinnell last fall which had been discontinued for the previous four years, and it was in this game that the fighting mettle of the Simpson team was really noticeable. Simpson lost to Grinnell, 20 to 8, but many fans thought that Simpson, as a whole, had the best team on the field that day. The defeat of the locals came at the hands of a Des Moines boy, West Stotts, who crossed the Simpson goal line for three markers during the first half, two of which came after sprints of forty-five and sixty yards respectively. The Methodist squad came back in the second half and had everything practically their own way, playing in Pioneer territory most of the time. Hogendorn made Simpson's only touchdown after a long pass, McCoy to Fisher, had put the ball on Grinnell's nine-yard line, from which Hogendorn plunged over in three bucks.

V. Brewer, McCarthy, Vanderford, McCoy, Ruble, A. Brewer

Clark, playing his first year at end, account for the other two Simpson points by blocking a Grinnell punt behind the Pioneer goal line and downing a Grinnell man who had recovered.

Upper Iowa—Simpson won its first game of the season from Upper Iowa University in a game played at Indianola, by the score of 20 to 0. This victory settled in a measure the championship of the previous year as the two teams had ended in a tie that season for the conference championship. The game last fall was a thrilling affair, the first, in fact, that the locals really showed what they could do. "Dub" Fisher was the most consistent man on the home team, scoring the first touchdown and being greatly responsible for the last two. McCoy, with a quarterback sneak, crossed the line for the second marker, and the third came in the final quarter when Fisher faked a plunge through the line and Hogendorn went strategically around the end for the final counter. The linemen, led by Capt. Holladay, hampered considerably Upper Iowa's plays, stopping Volk and Dooley, visiting aces, before they could get away.

Still—Still College of Des Moines furnished the next opposition for Simpson and after considerable difficulty, the locals emerged victorious, 3 to 0, a placekick by McCoy in the third quarter being the only margin of victory. Coach Workman pulled a Knute Rockne stunt by starting his reserves who played a fine brand of ball against the Still regulars. When the Simpson first string was called to action, they themselves found they could do no more than the reserves and both teams battled on even terms until the end of the half. Soon after the opening of the second half, however, Simpson tore off two successive first downs and when halted McCoy successfully kicked a pretty field goal from the twenty-yard line. Still tried twice to event the count by placekicks, one attempt being made from the forty-eight yard line, but both kicks failed.

Parsons—Two weeks of intensive drill without a game preceded the Parsons game last fall which was played on the Fairfield gridiron and which ended in a 7 to 7 tie. A large homecoming crowd saw the crippled Simpson eleven hold the fighting Wildcats to a tie score after the Red and Gold had evened the count early in the game. Parsons started out like they meant business and two pretty runs by the fleet-footed Geneva took the ball across for the first score. The second quarter, however, was a different story, as Simpson held the upper hand in directing activities. McCoy dropped a pretty kick into Geneva's arms and on the next play Parcells, Wildcat quarter fumbled and Simpson recovered on Parson's fourteen-yard line. Three plunges put the oval on the one-yard line where "Red" Brewer smashed across and McCoy kicked goal, tying the score which remained as such the rest of the game.

Cook, Fisher, Wilcox, Holladay, Storey, Hogendorn

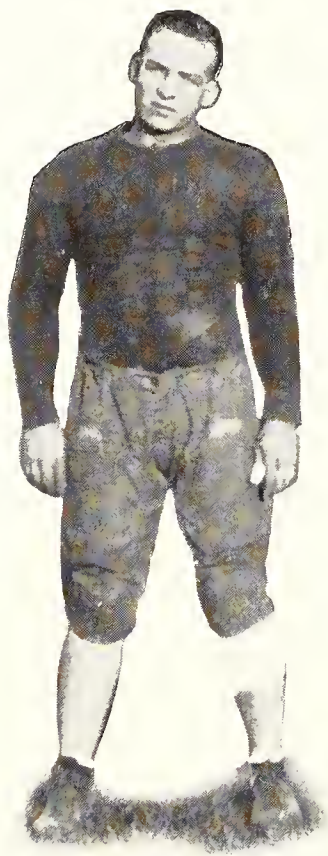

Simpson was handicapped part of the first half by the loss of Capt. Holladay who was injured but who was reinstated in the lineup in the second half. Fisher, McCoy, Clark, Brewer and Griffen starred for Simpson in the Parsons tilt.

Nebraska Wesleyan—It was a North Central Conference school that spoiled the homecoming festivities of Simpson College when they scored a 16 to 0 victory over the Methodists. Nebraska Wesleyan evened the scoreboard, Simpson having defeated them the previous year on Lincoln soil. In the homecoming tilt, Simpson was minus the services of two regulars, Quarterback McCoy who was out with an infected leg, and Chumbley, star tackle, who was down with the flu. McCoy played part of the final half but his presence didn't seem to bolster the Simpson attack much. The visitors scored two touchdowns and a place kick to defeat the locals. Robert Moore, reserve quarterback, handled the team in nice shape until relieved by McCoy. Kretsinger, Griffin, and Holladay starred in the line while Hogendorn on the offense executed some splendid open field plays.

Des Moines University—A game had been scheduled with Columbia but was postponed on account of a heavy snowstorm, thus the locals had a two weeks' practice session for the Des Moines tilt, in which Simpson forward passed its way to an overwhelming 50 to 7 victory. Simpson made what is believed to be a world's record for yards gained by a passing attack in one game. Three out of four plays were passes, fifty per cent of which were completed for consistent gains. McCoy was the man of the day, heaving forward passes at all angles and for all distances to his teammates. Every touchdown was made possible by a forward pass. The first half ended 23 to 7 in favor of the locals. Hogendorn, Clark, Garbett, Kirkpatrick, and Fisher were on the receiving end of all passes. Fisher brought the crowd to its feet in the final quarter with a pretty 70-yard run through the entire Des Moines University team. Kretsinger, Ruble, and Cook were the bulwarks in the line.

Penn—Simpson closed the season in a fitting manner with a 13 to 10 victory over Penn College in a game played on the Quaker field. "Dub" Fisher, fleet-footed fullback, turned defeat into victory when he caromed his way through the Penn team for 39 yards before he was downed on the one-yard line where McCoy plunged over for the winning touchdown. The game was played on a muddy field before a large homecoming Quaker crowd. Hogendorn made Simpson's first score. Capt. Holladay, playing his last game for the Red and Gold, was easily the star of the forward wall and was ably assisted by Love, pivot man.

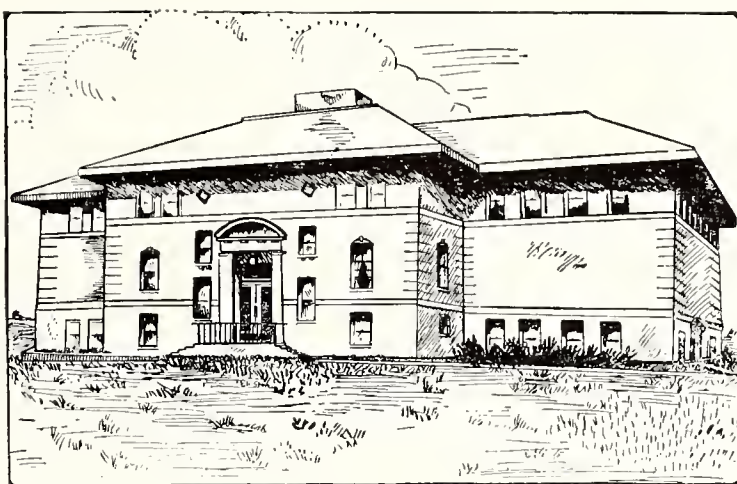

The conference football championship went to Parsons College who finished the season with five victories and one tie game. Simpson was runnerup with three victories, one defeat and one tie game.

Garbett (Captain), McCoy, C. Flanagan, Kirkpatrick

Coach Workman began the basketball season with five lettermen reporting daily for practice, Capt. Garbett, K. Flanagan, McCoy, Yackey, and Kirkpatrick. The string of reserves, however, was smaller than usual, only about ten other men trying for bench positions.

The first game of the season was with the Still Osteopaths of Des Moines. It was a hotly contested battle, Simpson finally winning, 36 to 34. The next pre-season conference game was with Ames on the Iowa State floor just preceding Christmas vacation. The locals led the Cyclones for three periods but went behind in the closing minutes and lost 24 to 19.

The Simpson team suffered a real loss following Christmas vacation when Kenneth Flanagan, star forward, contracted an infection in the foot, an infection which developed rheumatism, making it impossible for him to play the remainder of the season. Carl Flanagan, then one of the most promising substitutes, took his place and before the season was over, he proved to be one of the most valuable men on the team, making the Des Moines Register's All-Conference team at the close of the season.

The conference season opened with a 21 to 12 victory over Buena Vista. The following evening Upper Iowa fell before the Simpson attack by the score of 28 to 16.

Then, for the first time in three years, Simpson met Drake in Des Moines at the new Drake Field House. The Bulldogs, lead by the versatile Chuck Everett, gained a 31 to 22 victory over Capt. Everett Garbett and his crew. It was a hard battle and the winner was in doubt when the final quarter began.

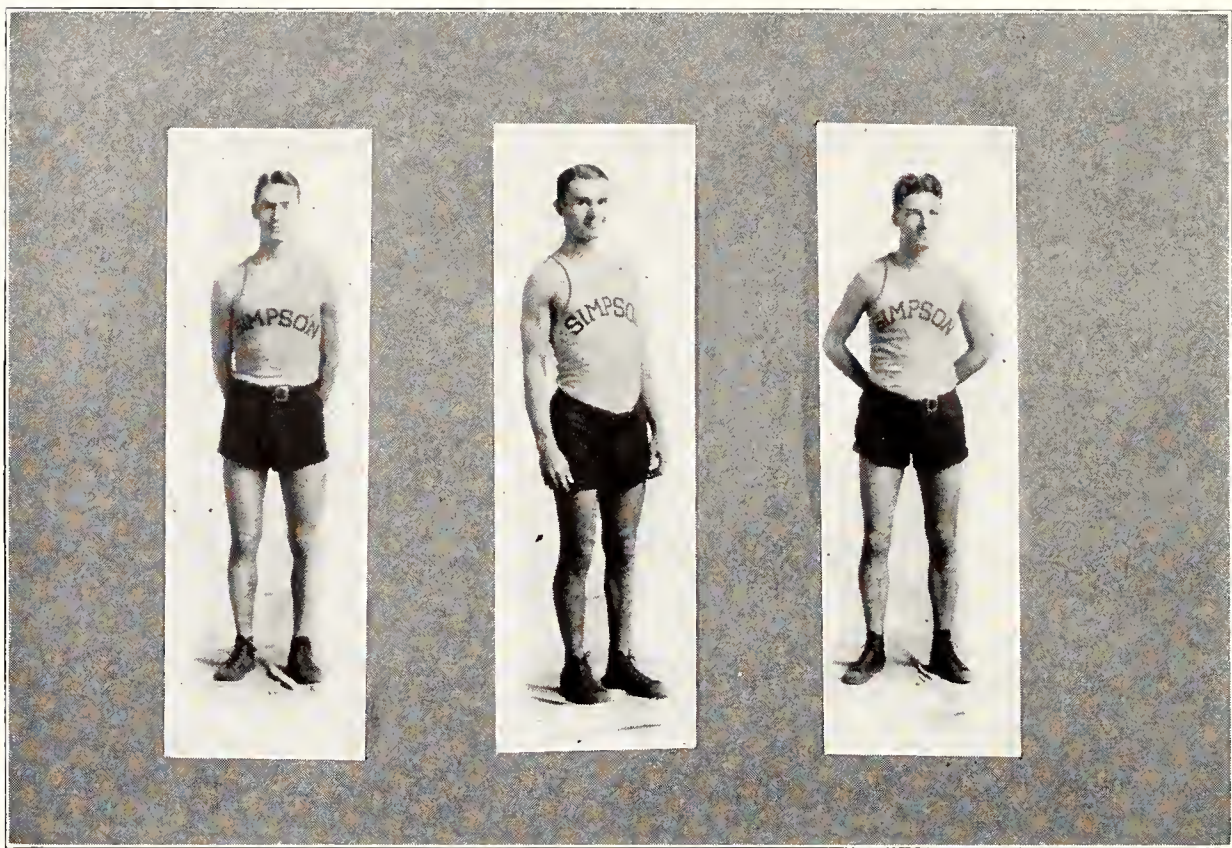

The remainder of the season's tilts, with the exception of one, were with conference schools. The Drake defeat was followed by another defeat, this at the hands of Luther who triumphed over Simpson, 18 to 17, in an extremely hard fought game at Decorah. Two nights later, however, the local collegians turned the tables and walked off of the Indianola court a 37 to 16 victor over the Penn College Quakers.

Two strong opponents worried Coach Workman considerably, Central and Parsons, and when the season was over he found that his worries were justified. Central, displaying an excellent brand of basketball, outscored the Simpson five in the closing minutes of play and won, 21 to 18. This was the second conference loss of the season.

Having bowed twice to conference foes, the Simpson crew set out to play real basketball and as a result won the next five games, two of them being overwhelming victories. Des Moines University put up the stiffest battle and it was only a long basket in the closing thirty seconds that won the game for Simpson, the final score being 29 to 28.

Coach Workman and his cagers then embarked on a road trip up into northern Iowa where they met and defeated Buena Vista, 39 to 26, and Western Union, 26 to 20.

Then came the scoring sprees of the entire season. Smarting under the 21 to 18 defeat that Central had handed them on the Pella floor, Simpson, from the start of the game, on the Indianola floor, had everything their own way and when the final whistle was blown they had piled up a twenty point lead, the game ending 56 to 36. Two nights later it was practically the same story with Ellsworth. Simpson started out fast and furiously and at the end of the game had piled up 54 points to their opponents 24.

K. Flanagan, Nuzum, Yackey (Captain-elect)

The tide of victories, however, turned at this point and Simpson suffered a defeat which some say deprived Simpson to a certain extent of the conference championship. They played Ellsworth on the small Iowa Falls court and were defeated, 19 to 18. Upper Iowa and Simpson tangled in another listless game at Indianola. Simpson winning 28 to 22.

The return game at Des Moines University started out like a great massacre, Simpson scoring 15 points before Des Moines U. tallied once and at half time the score stood 18 to 1 in favor of the Red and Gold. The second half was slightly different, however, Des Moines U. scoring 20 points to Simpson's 12, but this was not enough to defeat Coach Workman's men, and the game ended, 30 to 21, in favor of Simpson.

Simpson found considerable difficulty in disposing of St. Ambrose in their game played at Davenport but the final whistle found the Indianola team two points ahead, score being 32 to 30. The next night, Simpson sprung the surprise of the conference and defeated Parsons, 30 to 18. It was witnessed by one of the largest crowds that ever packed the Fairfield Armory and was a nip and tuck battle throughout, the Simpson boys pulling away from the Parsons lads in the closing minutes.

The Red and Gold quintet entered on the last lap of the season with two victories to their credit, one over Luther who had previously downed them on their own court, and the other over Penn. The scores were 30 to 27, and 44 to 32, respectively. The next to the last game of the season was a mix between the Simpson reserves and Still College, the latter winning, 40 to 18. None of the regulars dressed for this game. The scrubs put up a nice battle and the score does not indicate the type of play.

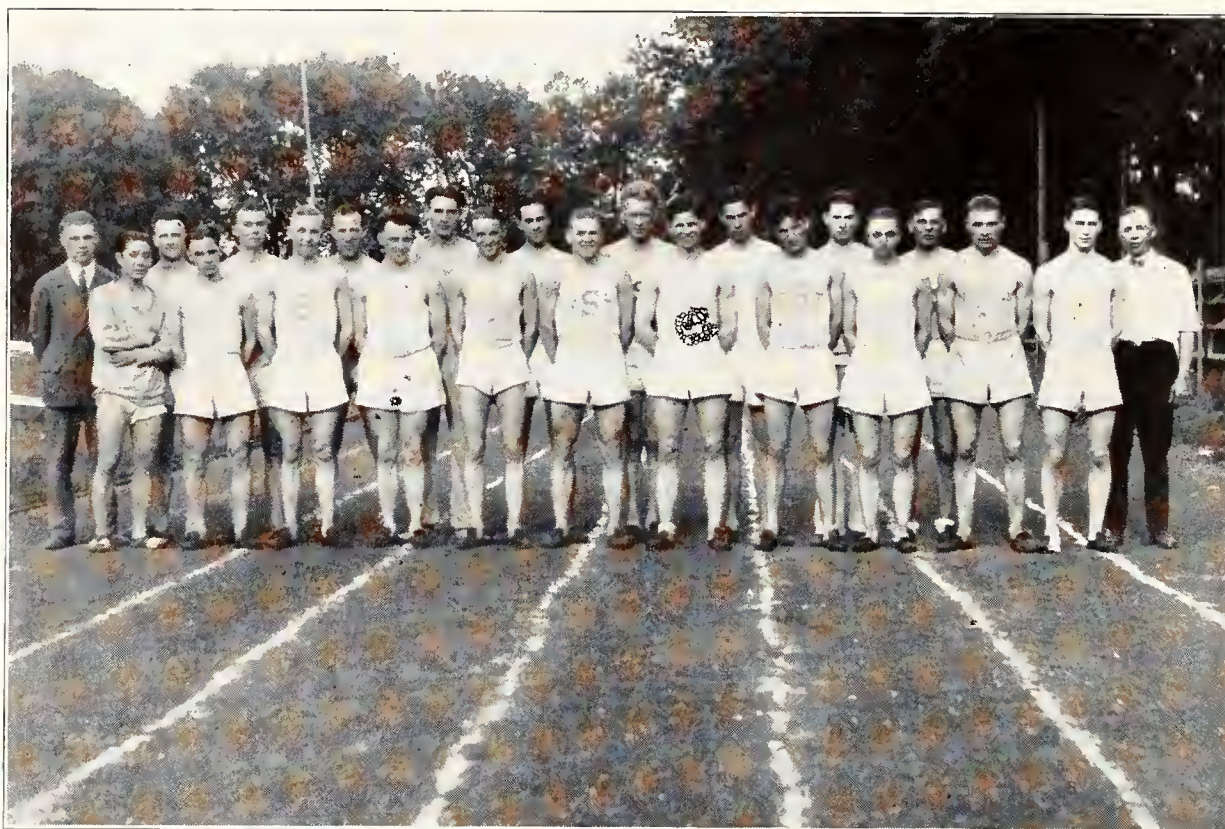

The final game of the season, the Parsons-Simpson tilt at Indianola, was looked upon with keen interest throughout conference basketball circles. Parsons had won the conference title before this game had been played and consequently they were playing more to even up matters with Simpson, since they had been defeated less than two weeks before. The game started out with Simpson taking the lead and up until the last part of the first half they maintained a three point lead but Parsons evened the count at 11-all at half time. Simpson again went into the lead at the opening of the second half but it was for only a short time. Neither team led more than three points at any time. 17 to 16 in favor of Captain Garbett and his teammates, was the score with two minutes to play. Things began to happen and they happened fast. Parsons sunk three field goals while Simpson dropped in one free throw and the game was over, Parsons winning 22 to 18.

Parsons won the Iowa Conference title with a percentage of .929, having won thirteen out of fourteen games. Central finished second and Simpson third.

Simpson came in for their share of the honors on the mythical teams. Carl Flanagan, playing his first year in varsity competition, was placed at forward on the All-Conference team. McCoy was awarded a guard berth on the second team and Garbett was placed at center on the third team. McCoy was also guard on the second All-State team.

Track

TRACK SQUAD

THE SEASON

The beginning of the 1926 track season found Simpson without a coach, due to the fact that Noel Workman took up his duties at Ames on April 1. However, Dr. H. L. Johnston, trainer of Simpson teams, was chosen to coach the track team, and before the season was over, it was found that the choice was a wise one.

Fairly good material greeted Dr. Johnston as he began his work as track mentor. The first competition was at the Drake Relays where the Simpson mile relay team captured fourth in the Iowa College section. The half mile team, composed of Hogendorn, Manly, Robinson, and Flanagan, placed second in one section of the Iowa college half mile relay. The mile relay team was composed of Hogendorn, Manley, Nichols, and Robinson.

Following the entertainment of the district high school track meet the next week end, Simpson tracksters began stiff training for the triangular meet with Penn and Des Moines University. The meet was held on the Tiger field in Des Moines and was easily won by Coach Johnston's men, the local team garnering a total of 85 points out of a possible 144. Des Moines finished second with 41 points and Penn last with 18. David Manley, winner of the 440-yard dash and the half mile run, and Tommy Robinson, leader of the pack in the 100-yard dash and 220-yard dash, were high point winners of the meet. Simpson won first place in eleven events.

TRACK

CAPTAIN SHEPHERD IN ACTION

Hogendorn romped into first place in the high hurdles as did K. Flanagan in the mile run. Other firsts were won by Chisholm in the two-mile run, Palmer in the pole vault, Girard in the discus throw, and Capt. J. Shepherd in the javelin. Palmer, McCoy, and G. Shepherd all tied for first place in the high jump.

The next meet was a dual with Parsons which the Red and Gold won easily, the final count being 71 to 55. Although Parsons captured first in nine of the fifteen events, they were not enough to overcome the six first and the numerous seconds and thirds that the locals won. K. Flanagan won first in the mile and two mile runs. Other firsts were won by Manley, Palmer, G. Shepherd, and Mercer.

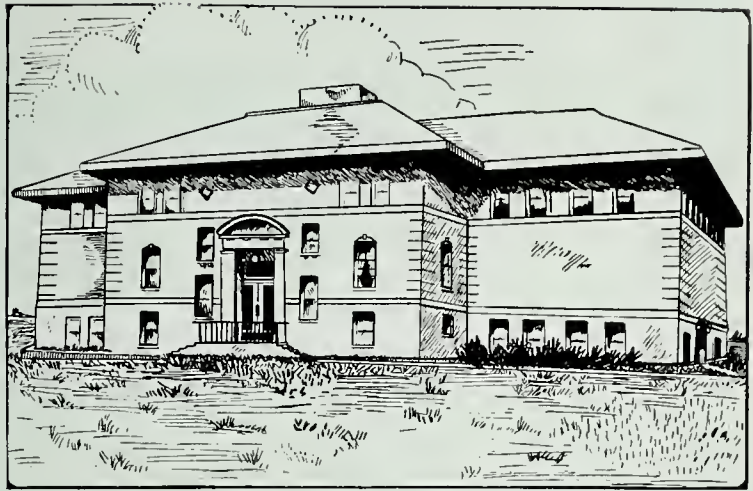

The crowning feature of the track season was the winning of the Iowa Conference track meet held in the Drake Stadium. Simpson tracksters garnered a total of 37 points. Buena Vista with 33 and Parson with 32 were the nearest competitors. Victory for Simpson had been assured before the last two events had been run off. As had been the case in the dual meet at Parsons, Simpson won only two firsts but it was their ability to capture seconds and thirds that won the meet. The two firsts were won by Capt. Joel Shepherd in the pole vault and K. Flanagan in the mile run. Geneva of Parsons was the high point winner of the meet, taking first in three events.

TENNIS

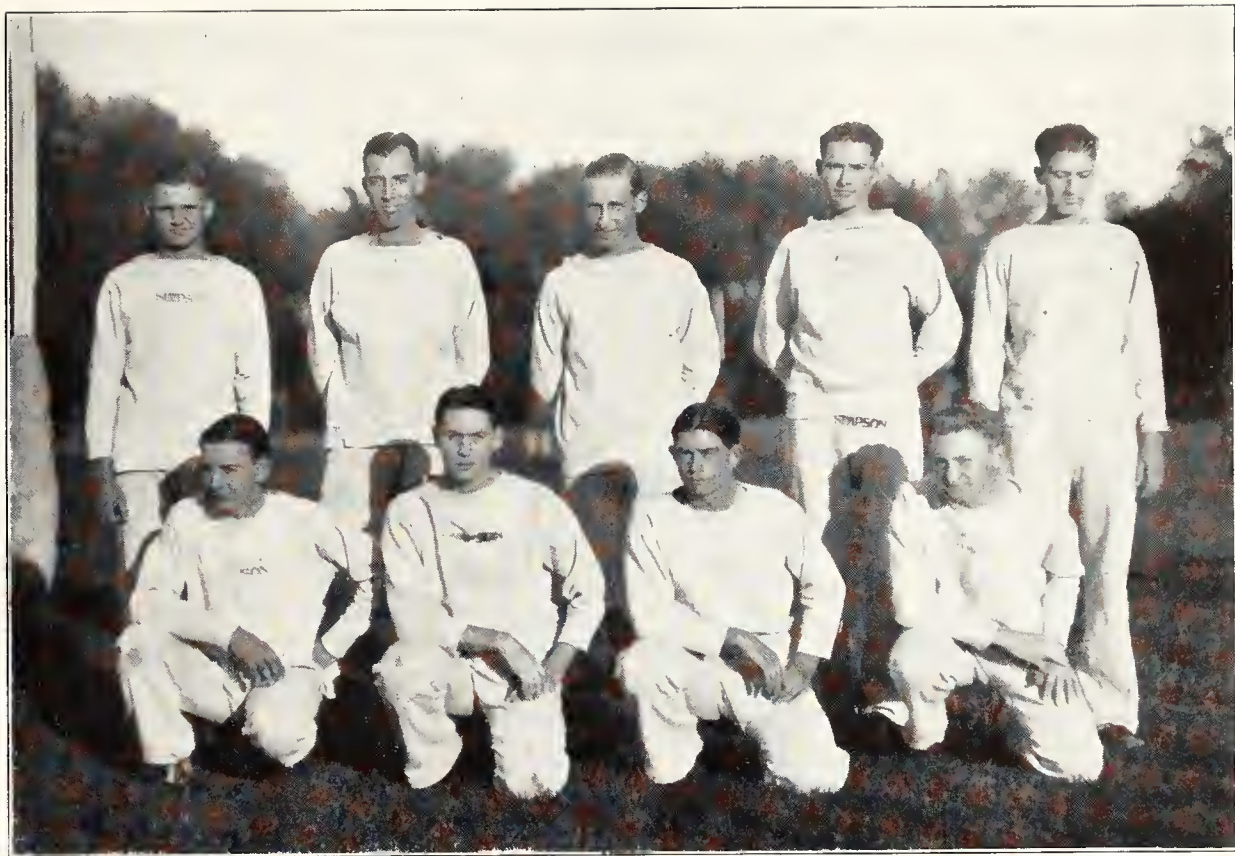

Tennis grew in popularity as a minor sport last year and as a result a fairly strong team was developed. The local netsters participated in ten dual meets, five of which they won by easy margins. In addition to this two Simpson men made a very creditable showing in the Iowa Conference meet which was held at Penn. Ray and Talley both went to the semi-finals of the singles tournament and in the doubles tournament, this pair went to the finals where they were defeated by the Luther team, winners of the conference tennis crown for the past two years. Other lettermen who composed the Simpson team during the season were Stimson, Steele, and Tutt.

Simpson droppd two meets to Drake during the early part of the season. Grinnell gained a verdict over the local netsters also, as did Des Moines University. The latter won twice from Simpson. On the other hand, Simpson won two meets over Penn, two over Parsons, and one from Ames.

Ray, captain of last year's outfit, won two out of nine matches. He played No. 1 man in every meet and consequently met the stiffest opposition of each dual. Talley and Tutt, No. 2 and No. 3, respectively, scored three victories out of nine matches. Stimson, No. 4 man, made the best showing according to victories, winning four out of six matches. The doubles teams made slightly better showings in the dual meets, winning the majority of their matches. Ray and Talley composed the No. 1 doubles team while Tutt and Steele made up the No. 2 doubles pair.

Following are the scores of all tennis meets. The Drake meet was not a scheduled dual but was arranged to give both teams pre-season practice.

CROSS COUNTRY SQUAD

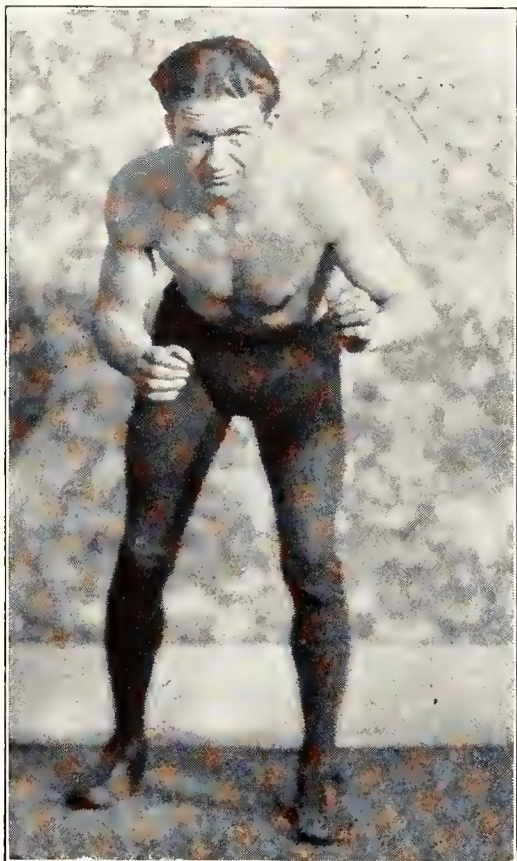

CROSS COUNTRY

Three marathon runs constituted the activities of the Simpson cross-country team this year. Running over a three and one half mile course, the local harriers lost to Parsons at Fairfield in a race held between halves of the Simpson-Parsons football game last fall. Three Parsons men led the pack, winning the meet 45 to 19.

Simpson won its second meet of the season from Des Moines University. Chas. Lindsay, captain of next year's crew, won first and was closely followed by Peterson and Swanson, both of Simpson.

Between halves of the Penn game at Oskaloosa last fall, the local harriers lost to the Quakers in a cross country run by a 27 to 18 score. Lindsay, Peterson, Swanson, Boyd, Flanagan, and Cady made up the 1926 team.

WRESTLING

CAPTAIN KREIDER

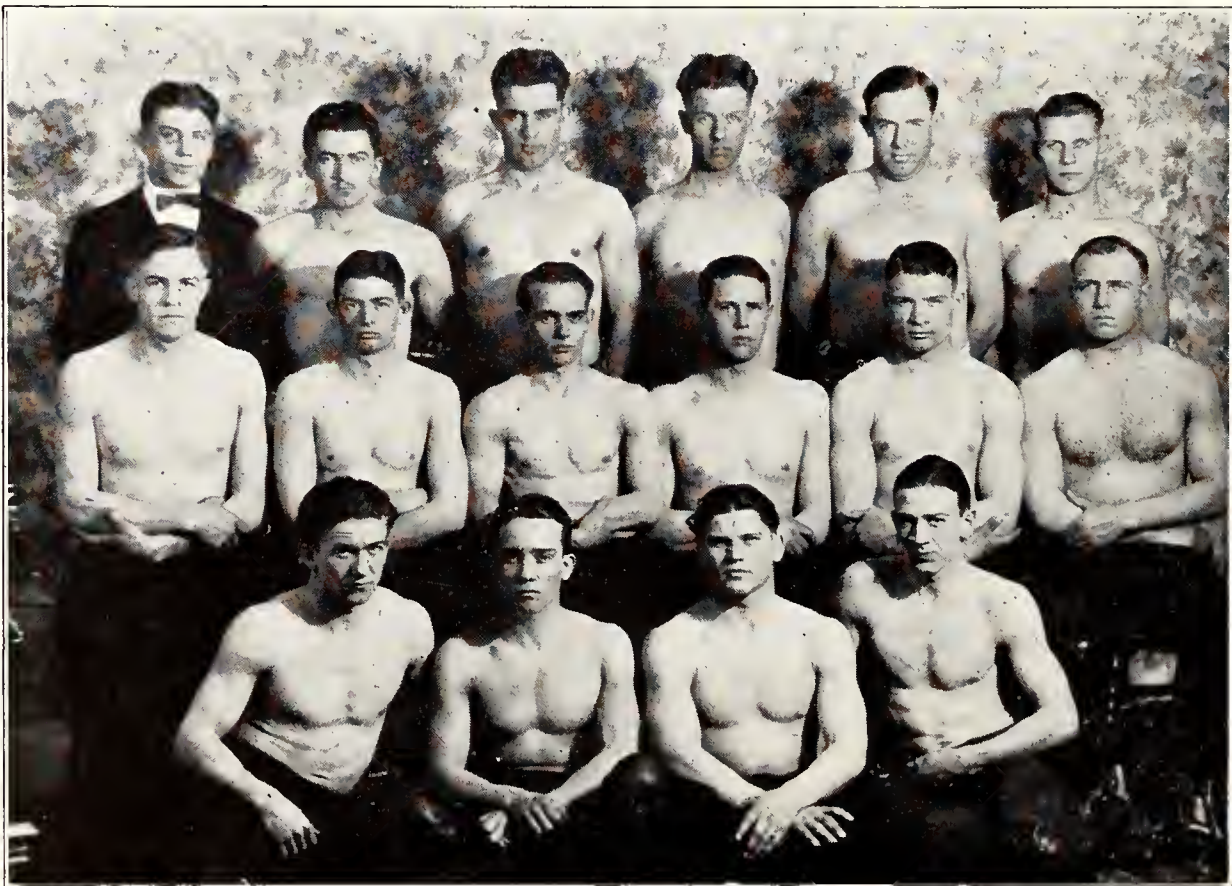

Under the direction of Coach Harry Kunze, Simpson wrestlers completed a very successful season, having won three out of five duals. The two defeats came at the hands of two of the best college wrestling teams in the nation, Iowa State College of Ames, and Cornell.

The team was made up this year of Fawcett and Porter, 115 lb. class; Hansell, 125 lb.; Bingaman, 135 lb.; Captain Kreider and McCarthy, 145 lb.; Hogendorn, 158 lb.; Miller, 175 lb.; and Ruble, heavyweight.

The first meet of the season was a dual with Ames. The Iowa State team, boasting several of the best college wrestlers in the nation, won the match, 22 to 5. Bingaman, wrestling in the 135 lb. class, won the only match for Simpson. Two weeks later Coach Kunze's men found easy going with Des Moines and won 21½ to 1½.

Cornell College, noted for its wrestling teams, won from Simpson in the next meet of the season. The score was 23½ to 1½. The next two meets, both with Ellsworth, were easy victories for the Red and Gold grapplers. The first dual was a 29 to 0 shutout and the second was won by a 22 to 3 score.

The local grapplers closed the season at the National A. A. U. meet, competing against the cream of the nation's wrestlers. Three men, Capt. Kreider, Bingaman, and Ruble, were sent to the meet which was held at Ames. Bingaman and Ruble lost in their first round matches but Capt. Kreider remained in the running until he was thrown in the second round.

Omicron is an organization of Simpson women founded to meet a growing demand for organized social life for a large number of women not affiliated with other social groups. Its purpose is to assist in upholding the highest ideals of the college by promoting a spirit of democracy, to coöperate with organizations on the campus, and to perform each year some definite service in the college community. Membership is open by application to all Simpson women not affiliated with any other social organization on the campus.

EPSILON SIGMA

Epsilon Sigma, an honorary scholastic fraternity, was organized at the Commencement of 1924, because Simpson felt the need of encouragement and recognition of scholastic ability and achievement.

Twenty per cent of each class may be elected, but not more than ten per cent at the time of graduation. From classes that have graduated during the time that the present grading system has been effective, eligibility for membership has been based primarily upon Simpson grade records. From the classes before that time, eligibility for membership is based primarily upon scholastic achievement since graduation from Simpson. Following is the list of those elected who have accepted membership.

DONT'S FOR FRESHMAN GIRLS

1. Don't buy dresses before leaving home, for styles change and dresses will probably be shorter.
2. When asked for a date don't act enthusiastic.
3. Remember "Honesty is the best policy" is a man's phrase which was made before women's suffrage.
4. If it bothers you to study, don't do it.
5. If Miss Stuntz calls you down, talk back to her; she admires originality.

Horton Talley—I bet those freshmen think Rex Beach is a summer resort.
Eberhart—Why some of them think Easter Sunday is Billy Sunday's daughter.

How to Make a Hit With Your Professor:

1. Tell him you aren't interested in his course and do all you can to prove your assertion.
2. Don't come to class oftener than once every two weeks for it makes him appreciate you when you come.
3. Never come on time so the Prof. will have a pleasant surprise after giving up hope.
4. Come in whistling slam the door, create the desired touch of comradeship.
5. Talk to all your friends and get acquainted with all the class for the professors insist on friendliness.
6. Leave as soon as possible so profs. will think you are business like.
7. Never hand in your work so you'll always have something to look forward to.

Tell the Story

For years John has wanted a new portrait of me to have down at the office. I just put it off thinking maybe one I had made ages ago would do.

"But somehow—it didn't quite suit him—I've changed quite a bit you know. So yesterday I made an appointment with the Avenue Studio.

"And now—just look!

"Fine, isn't it? Just the thing!"

Senior, pause, as you pass by,
As you are now so once was I.
But I learned, alas, when too late
That studies and dates do not mate.

Senior, pause, as you pass by,
As you are now so once was I.
To err is human, so hear my plea
I had a man—he two timed me!

Senior, pause, as you pass by,
As you are now so once was I.
One sad exam morning, please don't scoff
The blamed alarm refused to go off.

Senior, pause, as you pass by,
As you are now so once was I.
But writing verse soon drove me to drink
I died one night trying to think.
